

Payment Information

First tuition installment is due upon registration to hold dancers spot in class. Subsequent tuition installments are due on the first day of each month. All tuition installments are non-refundable. If installment is paid after the tenth of the month, a $20.00 late fee will be applied to the outstanding account balance. A $30.00 returned check fee will be charged for any checks returned by the check writer's bank. Dancers may cancel enrollment at any time. Artistry Dance Project must be notified in writing prior to the 1st of the month in order to avoid being charged any further fees. Additional one time tariff surcharges on concert, gala and/or competition costumes and accessories may apply. Dancer forfeits any and all items not already received as part of installment payments including concert costume, concert tights, concert photos, concert videos and concert t-shirt. There are no refunds for any reason, including but not limited to, tuition fees, registration fees, private/solo lesson cards, logowear/specialty show specific orders, costume fees and/or ticket fees.

Credit Card Charges

Tuition installments charged to credit cards on file will be charged on the first day of each month. If you do not want tuition to be charged to your credit card, you may pay by cash or check in the studio office prior to the first day of the month. You understand and agree that should you not pay tuition prior to the first day of a month by cash or check, your credit card will be charged the full tuition installment on the first of that month.

Class Cancellation

Classes held at Artistry Dance Project, LLC require a certain number of students. In the event a particular class sponsored by Artistry Dance Project, LLC cannot be held do to the minimum number not being attained, a credit will be applied toward a like class, or if no like class is available, a refund of the full class tuition will be provided. Should local, state or federal government require Artistry Dance Project to close for any period of time due to COVID-19 or any other concerns, Artistry Dance Project, LLC will transition all classes, programs and lessons to a virtual platform. There will be no refunds or credit adjustments for any fees previously paid. Artistry Dance Project, LLC reserves the right to remove virtual class options at any time.